

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic Church

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
August 2, 2020

Erected in 1936, the entire structure reflects the architectural style developed by missionaries, combining the building patterns of the Pueblo Indians with Spanish-Colonial design. Even the landscaping, with carefully selected shrubs and trees, is typical.

WELCOME TO OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL

If you are visiting or new to our community, we are blessed that you are here to worship with us and we welcome you!

Our Pastor Father Lawrence, our retired priests, Fr. Steve and Fr. O' Mahony and Parish Family extend the hospitality of Jesus Christ to you.

Due to the current public health emergency, our parish office is closed. We are here still here to assist you by phone, 805/969-6868 or email at info@mtcarmelsb.com.

Let us pray that the measures of caution being asked of all of us keep us from harm and that our prayers help those affected by this devastating virus.

Gospel Matthew 14:13-21

Reflection: Jesus is mourning the death of John the Baptist. He leaves by boat to get a little 'alone time'. The crowds follow him because they are drawn to his message. Despite his personal sorrow, Jesus is moved with pity and ministers to the crowd. He even goes beyond healing the sick and feeds thousands with a mere 5 loaves and 2 fish. There are even leftovers!

They all ate and were satisfied

The pandemic we're in now has us withdrawn and sorrowful just as Jesus was. Let's review the message that Jesus gives us in this gospel reading. Instead of burying ourselves in sadness, depression, and grief, we can look to the suffering people around us. The imitation of Christ is what we are called to do as believers and there is a huge opportunity here to reach out and help others right now.

Question: What false obstacles are separating me from being Christ-like?

Faith Response: I will look into how I have dealt with others who need my help and I will attend to others' needs more generously in the future.

Safeguard Our Children Did You Know?

Understanding relational bullying. Relational bullying is unwarranted, persistent, unwelcome behavior in the form of criticism, isolation, or false allegations and rumors that damage the targeted person's relationships. Relational bullying includes social exclusion, gossip, and withholding friendship, and it can be devastating for children and teens. These behaviors are more subtle than traditional bullying, often happening out of sight or earshot of adults. But this bullying requires intervention and action. Talk to your children about these behaviors, especially if you notice them being left out of social activities and friendships. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS article "Relational Bullying" at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY (1786-1859) August 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney's holiness: "He died seventeen years before telephones!" Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, "So far to ordain just one, especially this one!" The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, "No burden to ordain one good priest!" In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, "praying," one told Vianney, "for a priest with brains." But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: "Show me the way to Ars," he tells a boy, "and I'll show you the way to heaven." To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, "My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth."
