

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic Church

Easter Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection March 31, 2024

Erected in 1936, the entire structure reflects the architectural style developed by missionaries, combining the building patterns of the Pueblo Indians with Spanish-Colonial design. Even the landscaping, with carefully selected shrubs and trees, is typical.

Whole Community Faith Sharing

Gospel
John: 20:1-9

Reflection: In today's Gospel, we witness something that opens our eyes to the power and glory of God's love in a way no other event could. Jesus raised from the dead? How is it possible? Only through the love of God, which makes all things possible. Spend this glorious day in fascination at the miracle you are witnessing.

Question: What do I see when I look out on this Easter morning? How does this interpretation of this world shape how I share the Good News with my community?

Faith Response: I will keep my eyes and heart open this week and let the joy of Easter and Jesus' resurrection spark a renewal within me.

OLMC Confirmation & CORE Leadership Los Angeles Urban Plunge

Our high school teens bagged over 33,000 pounds of produce at the Los Angeles Regional Food this past month. We then toured the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels and even enjoyed a lunch stop at The Grove! We are proud of our teens and thankful to Sarah, Justin and Bridgette for leading them in this enriching experience.

From the Principal's Desk.....

Jesus is risen! Alleluia! On Easter Sunday each year, we celebrate the pinnacle of our liturgical year. For 40 days we have been praying, fasting, and giving alms to prepare for this day, all to arrive at the empty tomb with Mary Magdalene. Picture her discovering the dark and coolness of the tomb, a sense of finality and grief to be in Christ's final resting place. In my mind's eye, I imagine Mary would have felt startled emerging from the tomb into the light and confused that her Lord was not there. Even as she shares the news and returns with John and Simon Peter, we still do not see Jesus.

However, we know in thinking back to the Old Testament, that this is the resurrection of the Messiah that had been foreshadowed. As we move through the Easter Octave this week, we will see how Jesus comes to fully reveal himself to Mary Magdalene, his disciples, and to us. So let us rejoice today and throughout this Easter season that Jesus has conquered sin and death and prepares a place for us in Heaven!

May God bless you,

SAFEGUARD OUR CHILDREN

Did you know?

Abuse may be hiding behind positive behavioral changes

Last week, we looked at negative behavioral changes that could be red flags for abuse. It is important for caregivers to remember that some seemingly positive changes could also be signs of abuse, such as when a child tries to "be perfect" so as to avoid a feared consequence or in some way "control" circumstances so as to avoid or minimize further exposure to a traumatic situation. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Prayer and meditation before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament are great ways to spend some special time with Him. You can ask Him for graces for yourself or for loved ones, reflect on His Word, or just keep Him company! And it's no bother for Jesus. In fact, He very much wants to see you!

Adoration is held every Wednesday from 3:30pm to 6pm in the Main Church. All are welcome!
